

CHICAGO PROSO PON ICON WORKSHOP

6-Day Intensive Workshop Conducted by Founder of the Prosopon School of Iconology
VLADISLAV ANDREJEV

and
Master Iconographer
DMITRI ANDREYEV

November 6-11, 2017

Monastery of the Holy Cross
3111 S. Aberdeen Street
Chicago, Illinois 60608

Prosopon School Founder Vladislav Andrejev returns to Chicago With his son and Master Iconographer Dmitri Andreyev!

In this professional-level workshop Vladislav and Dmitri will Teach the traditional Byzantine method using egg tempera and natural pigments, and Present the iconological basis of this ancient technique.

Included in 6 hours of instruction each day: lectures on theology, theory and technique, and Demonstrations of painting and other technical procedures.

Time for individual work and personalized instruction is included.

Beginning Students Icon of Archangel Michael (image may differ slightly from one shown above);
Taught by Dmitri Andreyev; tuition: $800; includes gessoed board and painting materials.
Tools provided. No preparation or previous art training required.

Intermediate Students Icon of Moses and the Burning Bush (image forthcoming);
Taught by Vladislav Andrejev; tuition: $635; previous Prosopon experience and preparation required:
Students must purchase board, transfer image, complete clay surface and gilding before workshop.

For registration information, please see:

<http://chicagomonk.org/upcoming-events/>
or <http://www.prosoponschool.org/schedule.html>